

Strategy of creation of a writing center of AESM

Name of the center: The School for beginner researchers

The goal: provides individual and group writing support, free of charge to any members of the ASEM community. The School for beginner researchers assist students at all stages of the writing process, from finding a topic through drafting, revising, and final editing of academic texts.

Our mission:

We are the training center. We don't do the writing for students; we coach them.

Our segments:

The School provides services for students: undergraduates and graduate students, from all disciplines taught at AESM, for all types of writing assignments.

Services:

- Individual writing consultations;
- Assistance with planning and revising of papers;
- Consultations and help in: writing of academic texts; references, citation and style of academic texts; avoiding plagiarism; using JEL classification etc.;
- Help with structuring and argumentation;
- Help with citation and sources;
- Help with writing process;
- Other.

We provide help with all types of written academic materials:

1. Annual Projects;
2. Conference papers and articles;
3. Thesis;
4. Abstracts and key words for articles;
5. JEL and UDC;
6. Other.

Location: References room.

Staffs: 2 persons (1 University lecturer and 1 librarian).

Partners: Department of Science, IT Department, PhD School and Master's School.

Impact:

Thanks to the services of the school will increase the quality of scientific texts in the economic field, and this will contribute to the development of the economic science in the country. Also this will contribute to increasing of the quality of studies and will improve students' success and make them more competitive on the labor market.
